THIS AFTERNOON'S VISITORS LOCHEE UNITED

Our closest Super League neighbours Lochee United are our visitors today and we welcome their players, management and supporters to the Canniepairt.

Under the management of Steven Leahy and Lee Wilkie, Lochee saw their league season get off to a reasonable start before being hit by a slump which saw them lose six Super League games on the trot.

There has been a significant improvement in recent weeks however, and the Thomson Park club are now unbeaten in their last three. There is no lack of spirit in the ranks as was shown in their most recent league game at home to Broxburn when they salvaged a point from a 3-3 draw after trailing 1-3 going into time added on at the end of the game. It was a similar story last week when a late, late goal forced a draw from their GA Cup tie with Carnoustie and subsequently a win in a penalty shoot-out.

There is plenty of experience throughout the visitors' ranks with midfielder Charlie Cargill and strikers Paul Blackwood and Jon Voigt still putting in a good shift. Scott Gates, too, has been a consistent performer. Brian Clark, signed from Carnoustie in close season, has proved a good acquisition while Connor Gray and Dean Wallace, both of whom have worn Tayport colours at one time, Connor as recently as this season, have been doing well since their moves to Thomson Park earlier this year.

The Local League

Tayside's four local clubs, Tayport, St Andrews United, Carnoustie Panmure and Lochee United are all currently in the bottom half of the Super League and all are striving to stay out of the Super League's bottom three places which would mean certain relegation for two and a play off for another. It would be fair to say that it's not been a vintage year so far, for Tayside's top four. The results of the games versus each other, including today's, are going to have a crucial bearing on that bottom of the league situation come next May.

DUNMORE REPORTS.....

Let's hope for some festive cheer this afternoon, as, so far, the month of December has not been kind to Tayport. Three successive Super League reversals have prevented the Canniepairt outfit from climbing the table.

A fortnight ago, Bonnyrigg Rose came to town and inflicted a 4-0 defeat. The margin of victory seemed harsh on Tayport, but Rose were just more clinical when the chances were presented to them.

David White opened the scoring, from 'Rigg's first set-piece of a bleak, blustery afternoon. Paul Currie doubled the advantage, courtesy of a dubious penalty award. Then, on half-time, Barry Donachie diverted a low cross into his own net and 'Port trailed by three. Other than an earlier, disallowed goal, the visitors hadn't really created any more chances.

In the second period, Tayport themselves became more of a threat. Ross Grant sent the ball over the bar from a good position and Matty Adam had a shot blocked after a Kris Rollo cross had caused problems for the Rose 'keeper.

At the other end, Sam Morris made one save during the second half, but was beaten in injury time, when Ross Archibald netted a diving header.

Last weekend, at Kelty, another goal was conceded from an early set-piece, with David Carr the scorer of a near post header. Tayport, however, responded well and netted an equaliser midway through the half, when Matty Adam got in front of his man to connect with Grant Lawson's cross and beat Allan Fleming with a well-taken volley.

Kelty quickly responded though and Neil McCabe's fine finish restored their lead within minutes. On 37 minutes, central defender Roger Duffin rubbed more salt in the wound when he scored from what looked like an offside position, making it 3-1 to the hosts.

Tayport probably had the better of the second half, but only managed to pull one goal back. With around ten minutes to go, 'Port worked a short corner and Grant Lawson delivered for Dale Robertson to power home a header; his fourth goal in Tayport colours and third in four games.

FROM THE ARCHIVES....Dave Baikie's 'Dream Team' from a Port Programme article 20 years ago in 1993. After a further 20 years in the game what changes might he want to make?

DAVE BAIKIE'S 'DREAM TEAM'

The Jeanfield Swifts' Match Programme has an occasional feature in which local Junior Football personalities have the opportunity to select their 'DREAM TEAM'. In the programme for the Arbroath SC game in October, Tayport manager Dave Baikie was invited to select his Dream Team. Swifts' programme editor Ian Gordon has given his blessing to the Baikie's selection being reproduced here. The article is reproduced in full -

In the second of this series, Tayport manager Dave Baikie is given the opportunity to select his Tayside Dream Team. Here is his selection and comments.

"Picking a Dream Team is not as easy as you might think, especially as my selection spans three decades, so I've decided to pick a pool of 16 from which my team will be selected.

Goalkeepers

My two goalies would be Ged Reilly and Grant Clark. Both are Scottish Internationalists and I was fortunate to play alongside both. Ged, with two clubs, firstly in the early 1970's with my first Junior club, Broughty Athletic and then for a brief spell at Lochee United in the early 1980's and, of course I played with Grant at Downfield. Both goalkeepers had different strengths. Ged was the best at communicating and organising that I've seen while Grant's agility and shot stopping were second to none.

Defenders

My five defenders would be George Malone, Jimmy Stewart, Mike McManus, Graeme Forbes and Lindsay Kydd. All players I've played with or against. George Malone (Lochee United). Right back and Scottish cap. George was once described by our manager as the Rolls Royce of Junior Football and I can't disagree with that assessment. The best sweeper would be the former Chelsea player Jimmy Stewart. A real hard man and a tremendous leader and reader of the game who led Blairgowrie to the Tayside 1st Division Championship. I've chosen two centre halves. Firstly, Mike McManus of Lochee Harp, just recently retired from the playing side but what a Junior stalwart Mike has been and, of course, another Scottish cap. Secondly, Graeme Forbes. Back again at Lochee United, he had spells at Motherwell, Walsall, Dundee and Montrose - a truly outstanding centre half. At left back I've chosen Lindsay Kydd, another Scottish Internationalist who was, in fact, voted the best player of Junior Scotland's tour of Germany in the 1970's.

Midfield

After a great deal of thought my four midfield players would be Charlie Adam, George Morris, Billy McLardy and Jimmy Kinnes. Once again I was lucky enough to play with or against all four. Charlie Adam was at Downfield when we went to the Scottish Cup semi final in 1984/85. Charlie, now playing and coaching at Arbroath, had all the ingredients required - brilliant in the air, could tackle, packed power in both feet and, perhaps most importantly, he was a complete 'nutter'! Like Charlie, George Morris and I also played in a Scottish Cup semi final - five years earlier with Lochee United. George was, for me, the most competitive, tenacious ball winning midfielder player, the best I've seen in Tayside or anywhere else for that matter. He never really received the recognition which he deserved.

Billy McLardy of Carnoustie Farmure would have been a great foil for Adam and Morris, adding that touch of class that every team requires. Billy, a former Dunfermline Athletic player, was the mainstay of the side during Carnoustie's most successful period in the 1970's. My final midfielder would be Jimmy Kinnes, probably the most gifted player of all. Jimmy, a former Alyth United, Downfield and Brechin City player, would be the first to agree with me that he was never a team player but was one of the most talented in Tayside. (Jimmy also liked a pint or twenty!)

Forwards.

This was the most difficult task of all because there have been so many good forwards. I've chosen five. John Markie and Eddie Innes from the late '60's, Brian McNicoll and Brian Flynn from the '70's and Hamish Mackay from the '80's and '90's.

I watched John Markie (Lochee Harp & Jeanfield Swifts) in many great Scottish Junior Cup ties at Beechwood Park. He was a brilliant old fashioned centre. Eddie Innes, the 1960's goal machine, ex-Carnoustie Panmure and Violet has to be in this pool. Once again I was privileged to play alongside Eddie when the Griersons managed to pull him out of retirement for half a season in 1977.

The two Brians, Flynn and McNicoll, had so many things in common. Not only did they share first names, both had spells at Brechin City and both were Scottish Internationalists. But most importantly, they were both prolific goalgetters. Flynn was, of course, my striking partner for many years at Lochee United. The other Brian is of Carnoustie Panmure fame.

Lastly I must go for my present striker at Tayport, Hamish Mackay, without doubt the most consistent striker of the '80's and '90's to date. Again, a Scottish cap, who did a lot of his goalscoring damage with Lochee Harp.

That completes my 16 man squad. Now to selecting the starting line-up. Very difficult, but here we go, Dave Baikie's Dream Team.

THE BAIKER'S BIT

Good afternoon to all and may I wish everyone a Happy Christmas.

Lochee United are our visitors this afternoon and they arrive on the back of a good cup win over Carnoustie, albeit in a penalty shoot out.

Last week saw us lose out 3-2 at Kelty but I felt it was a game which was very much winnable by us only for our old failings to come back and haunt us, gifting a goal after only two minutes for the second week in a row. This of course heaps pressure on us from the word go and also, for the second week, we've gone in at half time with a mountain to climb. In both games our players have shown with their 2nd half efforts that if these first half failings were eradicated, then we'd be well into producing victories and gaining points. That's what we are striving to do in every game we go into.

Today is a new day and today we face Lochee United who like all the sides north of the Forth Bridge, take up a southerly position in the league table which is not a coincidence but is probably more down to finance than anything else.

This afternoon is another opportunity for Tayport to show that the victories against Newtongrange and Bo'ness United were no flukes and that we are well capable of earning success when we put in a performance. Yes, we go into another game as underdogs, but I believe if we can eradicate the errors in our game, we are capable of gaining success this afternoon

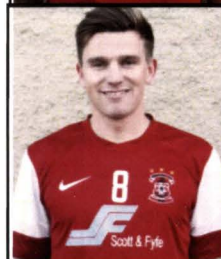

Support the 'Port!

SNIFFING AROUND WITH THE SNOOT

Tayport's next home game is scheduled to be the Scottish Junior Cup 4th round tie v Hill of Beath on Saturday 18 January. The clubs are both previous winners but have never previously clashed in the national competition. Hill of Beath's success came in 1990 with a 1-0 win over Lesmahagow at Kilmarnock's Rugby Park.

What about West Ham United's James Tomkins? Arrested last week outside the Sugar Hut night club in Brentwood for being drunk and disorderly and assaulting a policeman. A footballer with lots of money getting drunk, nothing new in that. But Tomkins hadn't long recorded a festive message for the fans warning of the perils of overdoing the drinking at Christmas!

The Tayport FC Christmas Prize Draw was very successful and the club wishes to pass on its sincere thanks to all those who contributed by donating prizes and selling tickets. Prize winners were: £150 M&S Hamper - Suzanne Sneddon; £100 M&S Hamper - Ronald Redpath; Luxury Christmas Hamper - Colin Graham; Cobbies Inn Voucher - Mo Japp; Sherry - E.Bryson; Vodka - David c/o West Port Print; Beiderbecke's Voucher - Alison Henderson; Brandy- Robert Bryson; Whisky - M.Aitken; Cosmetics - Maureen Oswald; Cadbury's Chocolates - Thomas Welsh; Wine - Gillian Aitken; Wine - Peter Carmichael; Vodka - Barry Liddle; Biscuits - Evie Welsh; Beiderbecke's Voucher - Alison Kelly; Panettone - Anne Baikie; Vodka - Mike Crichton; Shortbread - E.Bryson; Gift Set with wine - Chris Graves; Wine - Joan Bachelor; Beiderbecke's Voucher - Chris Graves; Gift Set with Wine - Brian McCulley; Cadbury's Chocolates - Tina Howie; Wine - Derek Carr; Cobbies Inn Meal Voucher - Jackie; Cider - Denise Farnan; Make-up Set - Chris Graves; Wine - F.Rippin; Beiderbecke's Voucher - Ron Nicol; Whisky - Kevin McGoldrick; Wine - Alan Bryson; Cadbury's Chocolates - Brian McCulley; Wine - Dennis Marwick; Tin Shortbread - Roger Bailey; Cosmetics - Jenny Walker; Sherry - Michelle Morris; Cosmetics - Ron Nicol; Wine - Thomas Welsh; Boots Footcare - Sharon Smith; Wine - Maureen Oswald; Craft Kit - Derek Ritchie; Perfume - Graeme Buchan

A limited number of seats are available on the team bus going to Newtongrange Star next Saturday (4 January) and to Linlithgow Rose the following week. Any persons interested should get in touch with the club secretary.

Half season Season Tickets are available now giving access to complementary half time refreshments at all games and entry to all league games. Contact Club Secretary or any committee member.

As we move into January and the perennial problem of match postponements supporters are reminded that details of any such postponements will be intimated on the club's Twitter feed @TayportFC and the Newline 01382552755

a colossal £,6000
Tayport's biggest ever
cash prize
