Today's Game
McBookie.com Premier League
Tayport v Jeanfield Swifts

It's good afternoon and another welcome to our visitors from Perth, only four weeks since their last visit here on East of Scotland Cup duty. That was a disappointing afternoon for Tayport, indeed it was probably one of the poorest displays of our season. This can be ably illustrated by the fact that, up until last Saturday when East Craigie fell 4-0 to Swifts, it was the only occasion on which opponents had failed to breach Jeanfield's defence this year. And we were playing against 10 men for most of the match, too.

Credit where credit's due however, Jeanfield stuck in and got their chance just after half time when Chris McLeish finished in style to bag the only goal of the game.

It continues to be a good start to 2015 for our visitors under new boss Andy Heggie and with quarter of the year gone, Jeanfield have lost only once in the eight games they've played, a surprise 2-3 defeat by the unpredictable Dundee Violet at Riverside Stadium. However Jeanfield will be in good fettle this afternoon following that win last week v East Craigie when four second half goals erased memories of the previous week's defeat by the Pansies.

Manager Heggie has had a number of injuries to contend with and to compensate brought in defender Ryan Ward from Lochee United and striker Greg Birmingham from Carnoustie Panmure.

Richard Cargill held his place in the Tayport goal after coming in for Gavin Wilson the other week when the big keeper was abroad attending a wedding. Gary Sutherland has now completed his two game suspension and Kevin Milne, who was on holiday last week, is available again. On the down side Ryan Suttie misses the next two games through suspension and Allan Ramsay is unlikely to be fit.

The win here four weeks ago was a milestone victory for Jeanfield, given that it was a first ever win at the Canniepairt. Indeed, until then, their success rate at Tayport over the years was zero %. Let's hope winning here doesn't become a habit!

THE "BAIKER'S" BIT

Jeanfield Swifts provide our opposition for this afternoon's league encounter. It's only four weeks or so ago we met in the East of Scotland Cup, losing 1-0, a day I'd rather forget about, to be honest. Since that defeat we've had a decent period beginning with a win in a hard fought encounter at home to Dundonald Bluebell. As the game progressed it became evident that it was going to end in a 1-0 scoreline but I felt we got stronger as the game wore on and probably deserved the three points in the end.

We followed that with a 2-1 victory at Scone Thistle to reach the semi-finals of the GA Cup. We started well to go 2-0 up at the interval on one of the poorest surfaces on which we've played in a long time. After the interval we had a great opportunity to extend our lead but failed to take the opportunity and allowed our opponents a way back into the game but we managed to stutter over the line and of course I'm happy to make the next round but really disappointed with our second half display.

I must say that there was some apprehension going into last week's vital league game away to league leaders Dalkeith without three experienced players, a vital game for both sides, but those thoughts were dispelled with, in my opinion, a really sound performance. With a near gale force wind down the pitch our opponents decided to give us the wind in the first period and in the main we dominated, creating a few chances and converting one just before the interval. Facing the wind in the second half could have been a problem but it turned out not to be the case. We defended well when we had to and constantly caused them problems on the counter, scoring a second goal and creating an other couple of good chances. So it turned out to be a good day and a fine victory.

This afternoon is another vitally important opportunity which we must embrace. As I said earlier, we lost to Jeanfield not so long ago and we must learn lessons from that reversal and attempt to make sure we don't make the same mistakes. We have to strive for consistency in attitude and work rate but produce what we produced last week then we won't be far away from victory.

Dunmore Reports.....

When Jeanfield came to the Canniepairt a few weeks ago, they dumped Tayport out of the East of Scotland Cup. Since then, however, 'Port have won three on the bounce, with two league wins and a cup victory thrown in for good measure.

First up was the visit of Dundonald Bluebell, in an East Premier League encounter. Debutant goalkeeper Richard Cargill caught the eye with a couple of notable first half stops, while Kevin Milne and Grant Lawson went close at the other end.

On the hour, both sides were reduced to ten men, when Gary Sutherland and Dundonald's Scott Mayne tangled and received their marching orders. Bluebell sub Jamie Gilfillan then threatened on a couple of occasions, but it was Tayport who claimed a dramatic late winner. After a corner kick, the ball broke for Clark Kay and he found he corner of the net, to seal three points.

A fortnight ago, there was a trip to Scone, to meet the local Thistle, in the quarter-finals of the GA Engineering Cup. On a sloping, bobbly pitch, Kevin Milne gave Tayport a two-goal lead, clinically netting two excellent, well-timed passes from Alan Tulloch.

The second half turned into a bit of a struggle and Kenny Hynds halved the deficit on 70 minutes. Late on, Scone's hopes of forcing the game to penalties were destroyed by two red cards; Keith Dewar and Ross Mitchell both collecting second cautions.

Last week, 'Port visited table-topping Dalkeith Thistle and claimed a fantastic win at the windswept King's Park. The Canniepairt outfit turned in a solid performance, scoring late in each half to secure the points. With half-time approaching, Grant Lawson burst down the flank and centred for veteran striker Murray McDowell, who was playing as a trialist. McDowell netted at the near post, more than eight years having elapsed since his last Tayport goal.

McDowell was also involved in the game's crucial second goal, on 75 minutes, feeding Alan Tulloch, who raced clear and beat the 'keeper with a composed finish. There was some late concern, when Ryan Suttie was harshly red-carded and 'Port had to play the last ten minutes with ten men, but they held on admirably to climb into third place in the table and move to within touching distance of the top.

Sniffing About with the Snout

Look out ...China is on the march. In an effort to make China a leading football nation, Beijing is introducing compulsory football classes.

Involving theory and practice, they will be introduced to 20,000 football-themed schools by 2017. Seven new "football" text books will be issued. State - run training programmes have been highly successful in bringing China's athletes Olympic glory and President Xi Jinping hopes it can do the same to the footy team who are currently 83rd in the Fifa world rankings

Tayport Community Trust (TCT) which plans to bring a multi faceted Community Hub to replace the derelict Rippin building adjacent to the Tayport FC ground, has received a further grant from the Big Lottery Fund. The award of £119,023, described as 'Development Funding', is needed to pay for design fees and site reports. This six figure spend is required in order to prepare a planning application and to put together a further bid to the Lottery for the actual £million + funding to get the project off the ground. The local press carried an artist's impression of the new Hub. This impression showed an outdoor artificial football area which is perhaps a trifle misleading as TCT have already indicated that such an outdoor facility is not part of the initial plan but rather is envisaged as part of a future development. You can keep up to date with developments on the TCT website at www.TayportCT.org.uk where membership forms to join the Trust - for free - can be downloaded.

A good line in the press this week concerning Kyle Lafferty the Northern Ireland striker, whose goals look like propelling his country to the Euro Finals. Lafferty was sold by Italian side Palermo last summer because, as their president despairingly said, the transfer had all but been forced on them as Lafferty was "an Irishman without rules". He claimed he was "an out of control womaniser" which as the report said, in the land of Silvio Berlusconi, is either some accusation or some achievement!

The final is scheduled for Tannadice. Our last visit to Blair was in 2010 when we were dumped out of the Fife/Tayside Cup on penalties after a 2-2 draw. Blair went on to win the Cup

SQUEAKY BUM TIME FOR MONTROSE FC

It's squeaky bum time for Montrose FC as their season draws rapidly to a close and the previously unthinkable spectre of falling out of the SPFL and slipping down the pyramid becomes an increasing reality.

The pyramid system is actually a concept to which this club first subscribed more than twenty years ago and at last Scottish Football has finally dragged itself out of the dark ages and introduced such a system. Now any football club in Scotland, subject to meeting mainly ground related criteria, can join the SPFL and reach for the very top of the game.

In theory win the Champions League!

This season for the first time the bottom club in the SPFL, presently Montrose FC, will require to play-off against the winners of a play-off between the champions of the new Lowland League, Edinburgh City who clinched the title last week, and the winners of the Highland League, Brora Rangers, also crowned champions last week.

Both play-offs will be two leg affairs. If Montrose do finish bottom, and that's looking increasingly likely, and then lose out in their play off, they will play in next season's Highland League. The break off point between Highland League and Lowland League is apparently a line across the country which would roughly bisect the Canniepairt.

As we observed from our friendly match visit to Links Park earlier this season, the artificial playing surface is probably in need of refurbishment, and that's a situation which only compounds the Gable Endies' present problems.

Should this nightmare scenario become a reality for the Links Park club they can take some solace from the fact that it's not too long ago that Ross County were plying their trade in the Highland League!

Tayport triumphant in first final

TAYPORT JUNIORS 2
JEANFIELD SWIFTS 1
(after extra-time)

In their first season in junior football, Tayport achieved the remarkable feat of winning the Perthshire Advertiser Cup against strong-going First Division side Jeanfield Swifts at McDiarmid Park, Perth, last week.

At times the action was a bit frantic and untidy, but there were enough incidents during the match to keep the crowd interested. There were six bookings — Dolan, Hunter and Cushnie of Tayport, and Ian Duff, Alan Duff and J. Fotheringham of Jeanfield — the last being red-carded for an off-the-ball incident with Tayport's Wilkie.

Davidson of Jeanfield was carried from the field in the ninth minute with a broken leg following an accidental clash with Dolan. Dolan himself was taken to hospital at half-time suffering from concussion.

All that happened after Tayport had taken a two-minute lead when Coventry accepted a pass from Thoms and fired the ball past Ogilvie. This was cancelled out in the 18th minute when Simpson headed home a Brannigan cross. Jeanfield looked dangerous on the break but stand-in keeper Smith of Tayport dealt competently with their efforts, although he was caught flatfooted by a raging shot in the 26th minute which rebounded from the post.

With Jeanfield reduced to 10 men, following Fotheringham's indiscretion in the 65th minute, it was expected Tayport would gain the upper hand, but as happens so often in such situations Jeanfield battled bravely to take the game into extra-time.

Dave Reilly and Grant Cushnie had chances to settle the match but Reilly shot narrowly past and Cushnie headed over from close in.

There was a dramatic climax when, in the 119th minute, Thoms burst clear in the left side of the box. He carried the ball towards the bye-line then struck the ball low and hard into the six-yard box where Cushnie was on hand to side foot the ball past Ogilvie.

Despite there being no injuries during extra-time, the referee managed to add four minutes during which a save on the line by Smith and an immaculate tackle by Wilkie defied the desperate Jeanfield efforts.

Tayport — Smith, Malone, Paterston, Wilkie, Dolan (Howey), Sommerville, Hunter, Cushnie, Coventry (Spalding), Thoms, Reilly.
