Today's Game

Scottish Junior Cup 1st Round replay

Tayport v Cruden Bay

We welcome Cruden Bay to the Canniepairt this afternoon, the 22nd visit to Tayport from a North Region club but only the second since 2005 and Cruden Bay's first ever.

Cruden Bay were First Division East champions last season to take their place in this season's North Region Super League where they are just about holding their own. Manager Eric West will no doubt be reasonably pleased with their start, given that he has eight players aged 22 or under, including four teenagers.

September's four games yielded three draws and only one defeat, 0-2 at home to Dyce. There was a morale boosting draw with title challengers and last season's Super League runners up Banks of Dee and a penalty shoot out win after sharing four goals with Burghead in the GA Cup. That elusive September victory was denied them last week when that late, late own goal forced the draw that brings them here today.

Tayport got out of jail last week with a squad which was stretched to the limit through injuries and it's not looking much better this week. Neil Docherty, injured last week at Watson Park, joined the list of those getting treatment this week.

If it's all-square after 90 minutes today, then the tie will be decided by penalty kicks

THE "BAIKER'S" BIT

The last couple of weeks has seen us gain a valuable three league points and a draw in last week's away Scottish Junior Cup tie.

The 3-1 league win against Dundee North End was of course welcome but over the 90 minutes it was once again tinged with inconsistency. After deservedly leading 2-0 at the interval we once again let ourselves down in the 2nd period. We started slack and allowed North End a way back into the game but fortunately a good individual goal from Grant Lawson sealed the victory.

Last week saw us make the long journey up to Cruden Bay, I left with mixed emotions, part of me was bitterly disappointed with our performance and part relief that we get another bite at the cherry.

We probably just shaded the first half but created very little. We made a couple of positional alterations for the 2nd half and for the first 10/15mins I felt we were on top and managed to take the lead then followed that by hitting the post. If that goes in were probably home and dry but then enter the linesman who seemed to be the only person in the ground that spotted an infringement in our box. A penalty was awarded and for me this was the major turning point in the game. The penalty goal gave them a huge lift and had the opposite effect on our players. Before that, I just couldn't see them scoring but that's football and Cruden Bay must have been gutted to lose such a late goal.

So, as I say that late equaliser has given us another opportunity to advance in this competition, it's now up to us to "seize the day". We know that a performance that matches last week won't be enough! We need to show more attitude, workrate and commitment, do so then we will be In the draw for then next round.

Dunmore Reports.....

Tayport today face a Scottish Junior Cup replay against Cruden Bay, having rescued a late draw last Saturday at Watson Park. After a goalless first half, there was plenty of drama in the second. On 53 minutes, Kevin Milne guided in the opener, converting a cross from Neil Docherty. At that point, it looked like the Canniepairt outfit would build on their lead, but the intervention of an assistant referee put paid to that notion. Out of the blue, a spot kick was awarded to the hosts and Mark Stainton's kick ensured that Cruden Bay were level by the hour mark.

Rattled by the concession of that goal, Tayport lost another, in the 83rd minute, when substitute James Gibb was on hand to net a straightforward finish at the far post.

Worse was to follow, when Ryan Suttie collected a second caution and Tayport were facing defeat, with only ten men on the park. Two minutes into injury-time, 'Port snatched the leveller which made the long journey home that bit more pleasant. Grant Lawson flighted in a free kick. The rest was a bit of a blur, but Ruaridh Donaldson appeared to fire the ball across goal and it flew into the net, off a defender.

So, Dave Baikie's men live to fight another day and will be hoping to notch a win today, as they did last time out on the Canniepairt, when North End visited on league duty. Kevin Milne netted the opener with a powerful shot from the edge of the area, after a link-up with Gary Sutherland. Then, a fine Milne pass found Grant Lawson, who slotted home to give 'Port a two-goal interval lead. Slackness after the break saw the Dokens reduce the deficit, when Njie netted a right-wing cross. Later in the half, the cushion was restored, when Grant Lawson raced away to score his second of the game and secure three welcome points.

Amusing Quotes from Football Managers

Ivor Powell

Ivor a Welshman, who successfully managed Bradford City and Carlisle allegedly uttered these words after a good season on the field, 'Without doubt, one of the secrets of our successful season was the harmonium in the dressing room.'

After a celebratory dinner he was heard to say, 'We had a lovely meal. Lovely. We had a big steak with all the tarnishings.'

Ron Saunders

Big Ron, of Aston Villa and Birmingham fame, when asked about unrest in the dressing room and behind the scenes supposedly replied, 'Allegations are all very well but I would like to know who these alligators are.'

When asked to explain how a 2-0 lead became a 3-2 defeat Saunders uttered the immortal words, 'As I see it, if you're going to commit suicide, you don't do it yourself.'

Dick Duckworth

Dick Duckworth spoke to John Sadler in 1962 to say how pleased he was with Scunthorpe's side. He commented, 'I think I have the best side I've ever had now. We've a nice blend of old 'uns and youngsters. I think I've got the mucus of a good team.'

WHAT WAS HAPPENING 100 YEARS AGO ...

IN 1914 TAYPORT

The Courier reported under the headline 'Weak Whisky At Tayport'

James McKenzie, Bell Rock Public House, Tayport at Cupar yesterday was convicted on evidence of supplying to the St Andrews District sampling officer one pint of whisky 3.8 degrees below the prescribed strength. He was ordered to pay £1 with the option of ten days imprisonment.

The Courier also reported under the headline 'Tayport Woman's Downfall'

A Tayport woman named MMcG or S, 7 Mill Houses pleaded guilty at Dundee Sheriff Court yesterday to having contravened The Children Act and to being a habitual drunkard. It was stated that her husband was in ill health and had not been able to work for the past two years. There were three children. Accused was excessively given to drink and pawned the household goods to obtain liquor. Sheriff Neish committed her to an inebriates' home for three years.

25 YEARS AGO AT TAYPORT FC...

on 30 SEPTEMBER 1989

On what was described as a 'beautiful afternoon', Tayport FC's Fife XI beat Wormit North Fife FC 4-1 in a Miller Cup 1st round tie away from home on Tayport's East Common. Away from home because East Common was Wormit's home ground that season.

MARY WALKER

It was with great regret that the club learned of the sudden death last week of Mary Walker at her home in Young Court, Tayport.

Mary, pictured here with the Scottish Junior Cup, was pre-deceased by husband Abbie only five months ago.

Mary was a staunch supporter of the club, and was particularly active during the club's formative years in the Junior game during the 1990s.

Mary with the Scottish Junior Cup

Indeed, so popular, were Mary's supporters' buses that her own bus was dubbed the Mary Walker Loyal during a decade which saw Tayport FC carry all before them travelling to places such as Pollok, Auchinleck, Arthurlie and Cumnock.

It should have been no surprise that Mary should run a bus when one realised that she had previously worked as a clippie on the buses, following an earlier career as a baker with Barnett's in her native Anstruther.

Mary met husband Abbie, a Tayport FC stalwart, at a dance in Leuchars so involvement with the club was probably inevitable and as well as following the club's fortunes on the field, Mary ended up with the job of washing the match strips.

The club offers its sincere condolences to daughter Ann, son-in-law Stevie and grandson David.

ARCHIVE PIC FROM 37 YEARS AGO

The Tayport squad from 1977/78 which will be long remembered for trouncing the then mighty Auchterhouse team by 5-0 in the Gray Trophy final...only six days after losing by 6-1 to the same side in a league game. Back - Bobby Waddell (manager), Ian Mathers, Bobby McMahon, Peter Wilson, Bobby Nicol, Mike Clerihew, Ronnie Fleming, Doug Paterson, Doug Henderson. Front Kenny Smith, Keith Ritchie, Gordon Hughes, Ian Howe, George Ritchie, Jim Downie, Ian Brown.
