Today's Game East SuperLeague Tayport v Broxburn Ath

A warm welcome to the Canniepairt for Broxburn Athletic for this Super League fixture.

If anybody doubted the unpredictability of football, then Broxburn Athletic ably dispelled these doubts that last Saturday. Coming off the back of a run of three successive league wins over Musselburgh, Sauchie and Hill of Beath, a home match v St Andrews United who had just shipped 7 goals at Bonnyrigg looked the banker of the day. The Broxburn players must have thought they had another three points in the bag but were in for a rude awakening as St Andrews ran in 4 goals without reply in what was undoubtedly the shock of the day.

Broxburn had a miserable spell leading up to Christmas, winning only once in ten games and at the end of the year sold striker Fraser Keast to Bo'ness United. But things picked up after Christmas and Saturday's reverse was only their second in the eight games since the turn of the year with Nicholas Locke and Keiron Anderson rattling in the goals with five each during this spell.

The St Andrews defeat will have served to sweep away any complacency which may have existed within the visitors' ranks therefore we can expect a different Broxburn here today.

Tayport had the day off last week which was a pity as the team had gathered some momentum on the back of two successive league wins for only the second time this season. One of those previous wins was at Broxburn back in August where Tayport recorded a first ever win on the Albyn Park artificial surface. Both sides have rung the changes since then.

Tayport will still be without the services of Connaire Connelly who is serving the second of his two match suspension for a red card at Newtongrange and there is an on-going injury doubt over Gary Sutherland. Dale Reid took a nasty one v Penicuik and would have missed last Saturday had there been a game but looks to have won his fitness battle. Matty Adam replaced Dale v Penicuik and his two goals in the closing ten minutes, his first for two years, will do his confidence no harm. Player/manager John Ovenstone, unavailable last game, returns to the squad.

Manager's Memo

Good afternoon, welcome to today's game against Broxburn.

Last week we were idle due to Camelon's Scottish Cup replay and it was very frustrating, given our previous two results. We wanted to maintain the momentum we had gathered with the wins over Newtongrange and Penicuik. It was not to be, however, but it did give Kegs, Allan, Jim and myself a chance to take in the game between today's opponents and St. Andrews, two teams from whom we need to take positive results if we are to secure our place in the Super League next season.

On the day, St. Andrews ran out comfortable winners but we are under no illusions that this will be a tough match for us this afternoon. Broxburn have had a lot of positive results and look well placed to finish in a comfortable position, thus securing their Super League status for another season. Having said that, the way the lads have performed in the last two games, especially their second half performances, we should have nothing to fear.

We have been working hard this week on a few things especially starting the game better and taking the early initiative. With the new found confidence and four goals in the game against Penicuik, the lads should be going into this game looking to build on that confidence and take it that one step forward.

We set a target before the Newtongrange game because we knew our next three fixtures. If we win today that target is reached and we can re-set our targets for the forthcoming fixtures. The table is starting to bunch up now and a few teams are starting to get pulled back into the relegation dog fight. With Broughty, St. Andrews and ourselves picking up points, teams will be looking over their shoulder. I've said before, with this being the business end of the season, there is no better time to go on a run of good results. Of course, we would love to be fighting at the other end of the table but as it stands the last two results have given us a fighting chance to kick on and achieve what we want to. With a few teams around us in cup action today, getting three points will give us a chance to gain ground on the teams above and apply a little more pressure. Hopefully that is the case by 4:15 this afternoon.

Enjoy the game

Cheers Ovy

Dunmore Reports

Tayport had to cope with the frustration of an idle Saturday last week, due to scheduled opponents Camelon being involved in the Scottish Junior Cup. All at the Canniepairt will be hoping that the enforced break will not disrupt the momentum gathered from two consecutive Super League victories, the most recent of which came a fortnight ago, when Penicuik came to town.

Cuikie opened the scoring in the eighth minute, when the ball was deemed to have crossed the line, following a corner kick. Then, on the half hour, the visitors doubled their lead, when Aaron Sommerville was able to find the net with a neat back-heel.

It was a far from ideal start but, from that point, 'Port began to play. In the 35th minute, the hosts grabbed themselves a lifeline, when Alan Tulleth expertly turned in Scott Finlay's cross from the left.

The comeback was very much on and, in the second half, Tayport dominated proceedings. On 70 minutes, Danny Cavanagh won the ball and slipped a pass to Alan Tulleth (left) who showed great composure to beat 'keeper Bejaoui with a low finish.

Now Tayport were flying and Cavanagh rattled a shot against the bar, a couple of minutes later, as the home side went in search of a winning goal.

With twelve minutes remaining, Alan Tulleth released substitute Matt Adam who touched the ball past the outrushing goalkeeper and managed to find the net from the left side of the box, to loud acclaim from the 'Port support.

The cheers became even louder in the final minute, when Adam again latched onto a Tulleth pass and sent his finish beyond Bejaoui, to seal an impressive 4-2 win.

Let's hope for more Tayport cheers this afternoon, as John Ovenstone's men take on Broxburn Athletic in what is sure to be an enthralling contest.

1995/96 CUP RUN - Part 10

Continuing the historic road to Fir Park and Scottish Cup glory

The Evening Telegraph reported that 'Congratulations are still pouring in for Tayport's achievement in reaching their second OVD Scottish Cup Final in three years. It was another great performance by the Fifers and their 2-0 win over Auchinleck was no more than they deserved'

The 2-0 semi final victory over had caused more than a few raised eyebrows and with holders Camelon, the victors over Pollok in the other semi final, to be faced in the final at Fir Park on Sunday May 12, Tayport fans had a full month to enjoy the build up to the final. With two weeks to go, 17 buses were already fully booked

The team would play six games during this period and eighteen players turned out in these games as Manager Baikie shuffled his pack to keep everyone fresh.

Tayport's form in the run-up to the final could hardly have been bettered. 29 goals were scored and only 2 conceded. Three successive league games after the Scottish semi final win saw Tayport defeat Forfar Albion, Montrose Roselea and Scone Thistle by 2-0, 8-0 and 6-0 respectively. Next up was Carnoustie Panmure in the semi final of the PA Cup on Canniepairt. The sides finished level at 2-2 with Stevie Ross scoring both 'Port goals, but we won the shoot-out and faced North End in the Final five days later, winning 1-0 thanks to a Dave Reilly goal.

Only one game to go before the Fir Park final, a cup tie away to Luncarty and Tayport showed they were in the mood for their big day with a crushing 10-0 win over the Perthshire club with Reilly and Ross grabbing four goals apiece.

As the Cup Final day loomed there was concern over the fitness of talisman Hamish Mackay who hadn't played since the Carnoustie game. Paul Reilly had returned to action in the Montrose game following a broken leg sustained the previous August and Billy Coventry also returned v Montrose, his first game for two years. Would their recovery be in time for a cup final jersey? Time would tell.

Hamish Mackay...

As Used By Tayport FC

Movement at last on the site of the proposed new £multi million Community Hub on the site of the former Abertay Foundry/Rippin Works adjacent to the Canniepairt. Fife Council, who are transferring ownership to the Tayport Community Trust, have engaged contractors to remove the contamination from the site. The press releases don't mention the term 'contamination' only that they, Fife Council, are 'cleaning up the land'.

Councillor Lesley Laird, Fife Council's executive spokesperson for enterprise and environment said 'this site has been derelict for many years and is now just an eyesore'. What she neglected to say was that it was Fife Council which allowed the site to become an eyesore, through its neglect of the property during its time in Fife Council's ownership. Anybody watching You Tube videos of matches at The Canniepairt (Tayport v Penicuik was the most recent) will recognise how the condition of this building blights the football ground.

Michelin Athletic have applied to join the Scottish Junior FA for next season but have been advised that their ground does not meet the required criteria. Michelin have been advised to come up with revised plans which would meet the necessary standard.

Bonnyrigg Rose's long unbeaten league run which stretched back to August, ended with a 2-1 defeat at Bo'ness United. Bonnyrigg finished the game with eight men, Tayport's Young Player of the Year last term, Ruaridh Donaldson, being one of the three Bonnyrigg players seeing red.

No doubts regarding the result of the day last week. It was St Andrews United's stunning 4-0 win at Broxburn. Saints had been pulverised the previous week, losing 7-0 to Bonnyrigg, and the bookies' odds were something like 7/1 against them getting the points. What's more, Saints played the last half hour with only ten men after Kevin McMullan was ordered off.

Lochgelly Albert have proposed that the ERSJFA be restructured to have a Super League of 16 teams, as at present, but supported by three regional divisions

JIM RODGER

The community was saddened to learn of the death of Jim Rodger on Saturday 12th March aged 82. Although he didn't attend matches these days, Jim was a football fan in every other sense of the word and was always keenly aware of the on-field exploits of Tayport FC.

Jim, who was brought up in Wormit, was a key member of the Wormit FC team which along with YM Anchorage FC, dominated amateur football on Tayside during the 1950s. Jim's skilful displays with Wormit led to International recognition and he was capped by Amateur Scotland.

Liverpool expressed an interest in signing Jim but, with a good job, he preferred to remain Amateur. He later played Junior but, by now married and living in Tayport, he was persuaded to sign for the local club. The fortunes of Tayport FC may have been at a low ebb in the mid 1960s but, although Jim was in the twilight of his football career, his sparkling wing play and pinpoint crosses brightened up many an otherwise dull Saturday afternoon on the East Common.

A kenspeckle figure, Jim was both a bookmaker in the town and mine host at the Tayport Arms. An excellent raconteur, 'Jolly', as he was affectionately known, lit up Tayport FC's Reunion Dinners over the years with his sparkling wit and amusing anecdotes.

There was a good turnout of former teammates at the well attended funeral earlier this week.

Photos show Jim in his Wormit colours and alongside fellow speaker Doug Houston at the club's 1984 Reunion Dinner in the Gregory Hall.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

37 YEARS AGO

Season 1978/79

Richard Rennie, part time barman at The Pondy, was reminiscing the other evening about his Tayport FC debut. His recall was quite good, remembering it was an Alliance game away to 6th BB ex-Members which Tayport won 2-1, with George Ritchie scoring one of the goals. Records confirm he was correct. The game was a Lunan Trophy tie on 4th November 1978 although Rich thought it had been a couple of years earlier

The team had been going well when Richard made his debut at right midfield in a 4-3-3 formation.

We'll refresh his memory. The team was Derek White in goal. A back four of Gary Cockburn, Frank Feechan, Lindsay Ancell and Sandy Hamilton. Richard, Willie Lawson and Colin Scroggie comprised the midfield with a front three of George Ritchie, Rab Hanlon and Frankie Dewar. Richard didn't last the full 90 minutes and was subbed by Roddy Davie. The other sub, David Browning, replaced Frankie who had scored what proved to be the winning goal.

Tayport went out in the next round, beaten 4-1 by Timex, in Richard's (pic right) only other start that season.

Tayport finished 4th in the League the 78/79 season but lifted the Alliance Cup for the third time in the competition's now 85 year history. Tayport had won the competition two years previously, in 1977, having first got their name on the trophy in 1950.
