Tayport v Newtongrange Star

A warm welcome to Newtongrange Star for this afternoon's Super League fixture. Nitten have consolidated their position in the top tier following promotion in 2013. Experienced manager Alan Miller steered the New Victoria Park club to a fourth top finish last season and the Edinburgh Evening News in their preview of the season has tipped them to go one better this year and finish in the top 3.

Miller has lost two regulars from last season's squad with Guy Kerr heading to Arniston Rangers and Sean Jamieson moving to Musselburgh Athletic. The Star boss hasn't been hanging about, though, and has brought in Lee Currie and Stephen Tuloch from Berwick Rangers, Kevin Hamilton from Leith Athletic, Kevin Motion from Spartans and Brian Murray from Civil Service Strollers.

Newtongrange could hardly have hoped for a better start to the new campaign than an opening day win over defending champions Kelty Hearts thanks to a solitary goal, scored by inspirational skipper Blair Tolmie. Only downside was a red card for striker Kris Renton.

On Wednesday evening Nitten couldn't repeat their opening day heroics and went down 3-1 at Bonnyrigg Rose. Kris Renton, however, did manage a repeat, collecting another red card, although he was already ruled out of today's action by last Saturday's indiscretion. On the plus side Lee Currie will return today after suspension, and Star will be looking to ex Hearts man Craig Thomson to turn on the form which saw him collect a host of club awards for his efforts last season

Tayport after a bright start a Linlithgow last Saturday disappointed their fans by going down 4-1 at home to local rivals St Andrews United in midweek. It was Saints first ever win at the Canniepairt and although the margin of victory flattered their visitors, manager Baikie will have been alarmed at the manner in which the goals were conceded.

Back after suspension will be Clark Kay and Johnny McRae should also return after missing Wednesday. Neil Docherty is on holiday and will also miss next midweek at Carnoustie. Scott Finlay is available today but his red card on Wednesday will kick in next week.

Tayport FC apologises for a failure to provide half time refreshments for season ticket holders and a limited menu from the catering facility for spectators on Wednesday past at the St Andrews game. This was caused by a significant power failure which affected most of the electrics in the ground an hour before the game and could not be fixed in time.

Dunmore Reports.....

After Saturday's highly encouraging, albeit ultimately disappointing result at Linlithgow last Saturday, Tayport went into the midweek derby against St. Andrews confident of a positive result. After all, 'Port won both Premier League fixtures last season with convincing 4-1 victories.

It was 4-1 again on Wednesday, but this time it was Saints who went home with the bragging rights. The visitors opened the scoring on 18 minutes, when poor defensive play from Tayport enabled Robbie Holden to nip in and touch home from close-range.

Shortly afterwards, Saints doubled their lead from a 40 yard free kick, which sailed past Wilson and into the back of the net. Worse followed when the visitors netted again, just 35 seconds into the second half, when Paddy Deane scored with a header.

Three minutes after that, Scott Finlay was shown a straight red card as he challenged for a 50-50 ball, with the referee's decision appearing slightly rash. On the hour, the ten men were awarded a soft penalty, after Sutherland's shot was deemed to have struck a defender's arm. Bruce saved Stefan Elvin's penalty, but the midfielder tucked away the rebound to make it 3-1.

There was to be no grand comeback and St. Andrews scored again, when Kieran Sturrock came in from the right and finished in clinical style, to earn Saints a comprehensive victory.

Let's hope 'Port can get back on track today, but Newtongrange Star will represent a stern challenge.

Sniffing About with the Snout

My goodness, what's the world coming to, said our man when he spotted this headline in a recent edition of the Independent newspaper. There must have been a few splutters over the cornflakes that morning as our neighbours up river read their paper. Closer inspection of the article revealed they were talking about Newport in Wales. Pity though, there was probably some programme advertising potential!

*****

There's been a radical change with regard to teamlines this season. Since time began players have been listed on match teamlines with their home addresses. No more, however. From this season on, only names are listed on teamlines along with a registration number.

*****

The first round of the Scottish Junior Cup will take place on Saturday 26th September. The majority of clubs will receive byes and those clubs won't be in action until Saturday 24th October.

*****

There was a Tayport FC connection in the Dundee SPFL derby during the week. Coll Donaldson, younger brother of Ruaridh who played here for the last two seasons, and Simon Murray, Tayport's top scorer in season 2012/13, were both playing for Dundee United.

*****

Tayport have only two confirmed fixtures in September. No game on 5th as all other clubs are in East of Scotland Cup and Kelty are in Scottish Senior Cup. 12th Sept home v Fauldhouse and 19th away v Sauchie, both in league. 26th September is reserved for Scottish Junior Cup round 1 and GA Cup preliminary round. These have yet to be drawn.

*****

On Wednesday night v St Andrews, it took the referee and his two assistants until half time to notice that the Saints keeper was wearing a red jersey and red socks - the same as 10 Tayport players.

WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN TAYPORT 82 YEARS AGO?

L&NE Railway was running special excursion trains on Sunday 20th August 1933 and The Courier reported “ about 1,200 passengers travelled on the Tayport line and another 2,000 crossed on the Tay Ferry”

On 11th September 1933 Tayport held its annual Swimming Gala. It took place at Tayport harbour and was opened by Bailie Garvie in front of a large crowd and aroused great enthusiasm amongst spectators, it was reported.

On 11 September 1933 under the headline, ‘Tayport Man’s Photographic Success’ The Courier reported that Mr E Crapper, Tayport, had achieved a double success with his photographic study “Eider Ducks and Ducklings” which besides being accepted for the exhibition being held in London by the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain, had been reproduced in ‘The Year’s Photography’. Mr Crapper was a well known ornithologist and had a considerable reputation as a lecturer on bird life. [Mr Crapper lived in Linksfield]

On 5th September 1933 the final of the Putting Competition, organised by the Tayport Town Council’s Recreation Committee, was held on the West Common.

Tayport Municipal Tennis Club held their end of season presentation dance in the Temperance Hall [now Gregory Hall]. 150 attended and D Clayton’s band from Dundee provided the music.

On 12 September 1933 it was reported that a number of rafts of pitch pine logs landed at Camperdown Dock Dundee by an American steamer were towed across the river to Tayport sawmill [ Donaldson’s Timber who, 50 years later were to become Tayport FC’s first ever shirt sponsor after the SFA permitted logos on shirts]
