Today's Game
McBookie.com Super League

Tayport v Fauldhouse Utd

We welcome the players, committee and supporters of Fauldhouse United to the Canniepairt for this afternoon's Super League game.

Last season was Fauldhouse United's first in the Super League, after finishing as runners up in the Premier Division the previous season when they replaced ourselves in the top tier for their first ever taste of Super League football. It was a good first season for United who held their own, finishing comfortably in mid table.

It's not been the best of starts to this season's campaign, however, a bit like ourselves. Fauldhouse are one of twelve clubs separated by only four points. An opening day league win over Hill of Beath has been followed by a series of narrow defeats and a thrilling 4-4 draw with Broughty Athletic.

Live wires up front, Andy McQuillan, (L) a goal every two games on average last season, and Jamie Robertson each had a brace of goals v Broughty and look to be continuing the threat they posed to Super League defences last season. At the back, a key component of the Fauldhouse side is central defender Kevin Ross who kicked off his career with Celtic but is now in his fifth season with the Parkview club.

Fauldhouse's primary aim this season will be to firmly establish themselves as a Super League club. Manager Davey Cowan (R) relies mainly on the players who gained a foothold in the top league last season although defender Sam Watson, midfielders Ryan Stewart and Kyle Miller and striker Mark Aitken are new to the squad.

Tayport, the only Super League team not to be in competitive action last weekend will give a first start to defender John Ovenstone. John was signed from Linlithgow Rose last week and had actually played against us this season for Linlithgow on the opening day of the season.

THE "BAIKER'S" BIT

Fauldhouse United are our visitors for this afternoons Super League game, can I offer a warm welcome to the Canniepairt to their players and officials. It's been three weeks since our last home game, a 2-1 victory over Camelon provided us with our first league win. I felt, over the piece we deserved the win, we had the lions share of possession first half and had the best opportunity to take the lead but failed to convert. The first 15 minutes of the second period found us under pressure from Camelon but it was us who took the lead and increased that lead within minutes, so with a two goal cushion things were looking good, but as in the Linlithgow game there was to be Divine intervention! Of course I can't comment, but fortunately we held on for a 2-1 victory.

We followed that win with a second at Broxburn, trailing 1-0 at half time, which was pretty much against the run of play, and with time severely running out we were awarded a free kick just outside their box which was superbly converted, the goal gave us a huge lift and we managed two further goals for deserved 3-1 victory.

So, two consecutive wins and six points has provided us with a platform from which we must use as a springboard to better fortunes. In every game we've played this season we've had opportunities to go ahead, in the three reversals we failed to grasp that opportunity and were punished for individual errors, in between these incidents we've had a lot of possession, so we learn and improve as we go, the two victories are, I suppose testament to that.

This afternoon, we've another very difficult encounter in the form of Fauldhouse United, a side who've established themselves as a super league side. It goes without saying that we'll need to be at our best this afternoon to gain success but if we produce our best then I'm confident we will achieve a victory.

JIM SPALDING

It is with regret that we report the death of Jim Spalding, father of former Tayport stalwart Mark. Jim was an avid Junior football supporter and in particular Tayport FC. He followed Tayport home and away throughout the 90's and always gave an honest appraisal of the teams performance. Our thoughts are with Mark and his family at this difficult time.

Kelty did Junior football proud, progressing to William Hill Scottish Cup 1st round draw 0-4. Goals from Stuart Cargill 2, Stephen Husband and Scott Gates.

Dunmore Reports.....

Tayport go into today's match against Fauldhouse looking for their third league victory on the bounce, after recording positive results against Camelon and Broxburn in the last two outings.

The win against Camelon came three weeks ago, on the Canniepairt. 'Port had their chances in the first period but it wasn't until early in the second half that the deadlock was broken. Left-back Jonny McRae hit a hopeful shot from wide on the left, more than thirty yards out and 'keeper Ian Ure misjudged the path of the ball and it bounced low into the corner of the net.

Two minutes later, Tayport scored again. Gary Sutherland rose to win a header, releasing Alan Tulleth, who strode forward and clinically planted his shot past the goalkeeper, giving his team something of a cushion.

The Mariners, however, were given a lifeline when referee Lorraine Clark penalised Gavin Wilson for holding onto the ball for longer than six seconds. Indirect free kicks inside the area tend to get charged down, but not this time, as Jamie Glasgow was teed up to thump the ball past the charging players and into the net.

'Port held on for the win and next up was a trip to Broxburn and a potentially tricky match against the unbeaten hosts, on their artificial pitch. The Canniepairt outfit held their own during the first half but conceded from a corner on the stroke of half-time, to go in one down at the break.

There continued to be little between the sides, but it was looking like the game might finish 1-0 until Alan Tulleth changed the direction of the match with a beauty of an equaliser, curling in a 25 yard free kick, on 81 minutes.

The momentum had swung in Tayport's favour. A few minutes later, after a corner, the ball broke for skipper Stefan Elvin (R) and he rifled home a volley, past a crowd of players, to give his side the lead.

The Canniepairt outfit then went for the jugular, sealing victory in the final minute. Elvin burst forward and found Gary Sutherland, whose lay-off was thundered into the net by Alan Tulleth. It was a fantastic way to end the afternoon and let's hope for more of the same today.

As Used By Tayport FC

Sniffing About with the Snout

Paul Thomson has settled in well in the Lowland League following his close season transfer from Tayport to Spartans. The former Canniepairt defender netted his first goal of the new campaign in Spartans' 5-0 win over Edinburgh University the other week, a result which took his side to third top of the league.

*****

Sad to note the recent death of another of the players who represented Tayport FC in the sixties. Andy Fraser played for the Amateurs in goal and outfield and it was as a centre forward he was probably best remembered for converting the pinpoint crosses of winger Jim Rodger.

*****

Two flies are playing football in a saucer. One says to the other, "Make an effort, we're playing in the cup tomorrow"

*****

Hopes of having an all female team to officiate at the Canniepairt for the first time in our last home game v Camelon were dashed when one of the lines ladies called off. Despite the efforts of the SFA to find a replacement at the eleventh hour, we had to make do without. We've since learned that the assistant who called off, Kelly Kyle, suffered a burst appendix. We wish her well for a speedy return to the line. No assistants a couple of weeks ago at Broxburn either. All very disappointing to have Super League games without assistants.

*****

Making his home debut this afternoon will be defender John Ovenstone who was signed a week ago from Linlithgow Rose. John will team up in the Tayport back four with Gregor Anderson. Little did they know when they lined up against each other last season in the Scottish (Senior) Cup for Linlithgow and Dalbeattie Star respectively, that they would be playing together for Tayport less than twelve months on. Funny game, football.

*****

New signing John Ovenstone is 32 and played 295 games for East Fife, Forfar Athletic, Stenhousemuir and Alloa Athletic, scoring 22 goals.

From the Archives AUGUST 1945

follow up

Following on from the Archive article in the last programme (Vol 25 No.3), regarding the first ever line-up to represent the present Tayport FC, Jock Howe who played in that team 70 years ago, is pictured here.

Jock tells us that he worked at Balmullo quarry alongside a Tayport FC committee man. The team was struggling and following some banter along the lines of,

if you can do better, take a game. Jock agreed if his pal from Leuchars, Chic Treiwearn, could also come along. Treiwearn did come along and for a fairly brief period was something of a goal scoring sensation, likened, according to that other Tayport footballing octogenarian, Andy Phin, to Albert Juliussen who played centre forward for Dundee, Dundee United and Newcastle around the same period. Treiwearn was soon on trial with the Juniors and despite netting six in a match for Broty Ex-Service, he turned down the opportunity to sign.

Andy Phin, Tayport FC Honorary President, when looking through that Tayport line-up from 1945, noted that that one of the players was an Eddie Soutar and this sparked off a memory for Andy. When playing for Leuchars Under 18s, Andy was dropped for a cup final despite playing in all the games leading up to the final. 70 years on, and the fact that he was dropped for big Eddie, still rankles with wee Andy!

More on 87 years old Jock Howe. Last month whilst in Edinburgh to see his daughter in law and granddaughter appear at the Fringe, he took the opportunity to climb the 287 steps to reach the top of the Scott Monument in Princes Street. On completing the ascent, he was told, when asked his age, that he had equalled the record for the oldest person to climb to the top. I'll be back next year, said Jock.
