Today's Game McBookie.com Super League Tayport v Bonnyrigg Rose

This afternoon we welcome the players, committee and fans of Bonnyrigg Rose to the Canniepairt for today's Super League game.

We kick off the second third of the season with as difficult a game as we could get. Bonnyrigg are flying high with a string of six successive wins behind them, scoring 28 goals and conceding only 2 in these six games, ten of the goals coming at Glenrothes last week in a cup tie.

Bonnyrigg lost manager Davie McGlinn to Linlithgow but would appear to have recruited a more than able replacement in former Forfar Athletic and Berwick Rangers defender Robbie Horn who is assisted by David Burrell, a Rose stalwart for many years. The new manager had a wee bit of a disappointing start to the season, losing two of his opening three games, but he's been on a roll since, unbeaten in nine games.

Bonnyrigg were Super League champions in 2012 giving them automatic entry in 2013 to the Scottish FA Cup where they got as far as the third round, losing to Brechin City only after a replay. Last visit to Canniepairt was two years ago when they won 4-0.

Included in the Bonnyrigg pool will be Ruaridh Donaldson who spent the past two seasons at Tayport whilst studying at Dundee University. Ruaridh, last season's Tayport Young Player of the Year, has been injured recently and is unlikely to start.

With both keepers unavailable last week at Penicuik, Tayport had Raymond Jellema, the former Hamilton and Alloa keeper, guesting between the sticks but Gavin and Richard are both available for selection this week. Injury kept both Alan Tulleth and Stefan Elvin out last week and both could miss out again this week. Tayport looking to make a signing and if negotiations are successful, then he will be in the pool.

Missing from the dugout today are Dave Baikie and assistant Graeme Irons. The manager has had to go abroad on business whilst Mel is attending his son's wedding in London.

Last word to Rose manager Robbie Horn. "A trip to Tayport on Saturday and I'm sure they are hurting after recent results so we have to be aware of the wounded animal..."

IS THIS THE WAY FORWARD FOR SCOTTISH JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Historic day for Kelty

Alex Campbell tried out the surface of the magnificent new pitch

By Jim Stark
Chief Reporter
jstark@centrallifetimes.co.uk

A KEY part of the £7m Fife Council investment in Kelty is set to open this weekend.

The new Kelty Community Centre project is making great strides and it is expected to be complete very early in 2016.

But an integral part of it is the new astro-turf pitch facility at Central Park, which will be used for the first time this Saturday.

The village junior football club,

Kelty Hearts, will play their first home game on the pitch this weekend, when Broughty Athletic come to the village in the East Super League.

And Lochs councillor Alex Campbell, who praised Hearts officials for their hard work, sees it as an important day in the improvement of community facilities for the people of Kelty.

He told the Times: "It is a key element of the new community centre and is a major reason for the Marian Colts becoming the Kelty Hearts Academy."

"This move will see 300 children using the facility regularly, learning about how to develop their skills and at the same time, keep fit."

He added: "It is an exciting time for the villagers of Kelty and when the new community centre opens early in 2016 it will open up a whole host of opportunities for people of all ages."

Hearts player/manager Thomas Courts is proud to be in charge of the side at this important juncture in the club's history: "We enjoy being part of the Kelty community and having so many people using the pitch will encourage more to take an interest in the club."

Lessmore Reports.....

With Dunmore on Holiday his cousin reports today!

A fortnight past, Tayport slumped to a heavy Super League defeat, when visiting Musselburgh netted six without reply on the Canniepairt.

After a bright start to the game, in which Adam, Sutherland and Kay all went close, it was Mussie who opened the scoring in bizarre circumstances. With the assistant referee flagging for offside, 'keeper Richard Cargill placed the ball down to prepare to take a free kick. The referee, however, decided to play advantage and Musselburgh's Martin nipped in to roll the ball into an empty net.

On the stroke of half-time, Davie played a smart one-two with Jamieson, before slotting home to give the visitors a two-goal interval lead. Early in the second half, Jamieson called Cargill into action and finished at the second time of asking, to make it 3-0.

Then, a Jamieson cross was turned into his own net by an unfortunate Clark Kay, as things began to unravel for the hosts.

With Tayport pushing forward to gain some consolation, they were caught by two sucker-punch goals. Palizcka evaded the offside trap to round Cargill and score number five. Towards the end of the match Palizcka again raced clear to chip over Cargill and complete the scoring.

Moving on to an away game at Penicuik Park, Tayport failed to lift themselves from bottom spot, losing 0-2 at Penicuik, a result which put the home side clear at the top of the Super League. Tayport had the worst of starts, losing a goal in the first minute with debutant goalkeeper Ray Jellema getting his first touch when picking the ball from the net following Somerville's clinical finish.

Tayport fought back well and were looking the more likely side when Penicuik grabbed their second in 73 minutes. McCallum looked to have deceived the referee to win a foul twenty yards out and the same player struck a superb free kick into the top left corner of Tayport's net.

Tayport's spirit was strong as they tried to retrieve the situation and on three occasions keeper Bejaoui denied Sutherland when the Tayport substitute was one on one with the home No.1. It wasn't to be, however, and Tayport can justifiably feel a trifle aggrieved at taking nothing from a game which never looked like a top v bottom clash.

So looking forward to Bonnyrigg today? YES DEFINATLEY!!

Football History - First Football Story

Dr Maria Hayward, an expert at Southampton University, has discovered that Henry VIII - the Tudor King who had six wives, owned a pair of football boots.

These shoes, costing four shillings [approximately £100 in today's money (cheap at half the price)]were made by his personal shoemaker, (No not Andy Phin) but Cornelius Johnson, in 1525.

Dr Hayward found them in a list of the king's clothes made when he died in 1547.

Sadly we don't know what the football boots looked like so we cannot compare them with those worn by David Beckham or Ronaldo. However, it is not likely they were anything like the boots worn today. Historians think they were probably heavier than the normal shoes of the time and made of especially strong leather.

They needed to be strong because football during the 16th century, when Henry VIII was king, was a very tough game. 'Football in Tudor times was a very vicious game, with no teams and no rules, so it was not a game for gentlemen, 'comments Dr Hayward. According to a Tudor writer called Sir Thomas Elyot, it was a game of 'beasty fury and extreme violence'.

It is known that it was especially popular on Shrove Tuesday (Pancake Day) and Henry VIII even tried to ban the game because it so often led to riots and violence.

Behaviour generally, it appears, has improved slightly over the ages!

Sniffin' About with the Snout

There's not been much reported recently regarding progress on the planned Tayport Community Hub on the former Abertay / Rippin derelict works site adjacent to the Canniepairt. The ground was cleared of rubbish and overgrown vegetation last year but it's now as overgrown as ever. The building continues to lie empty and is accessible to all and sundry. Recently a caravan had even taken up residence in the grounds. The Council have erected a sign advising that it's a 'dangerous building keep out'. All very well, but there are numerous access points to the site and the building which the Council haven't made secure.

A Tayport FC season ticket came in very handy the other day when season ticket holder Hester Matthew lost her purse in Aberdeen. Fortunately the purse was handed in to the security office at Union Square shopping centre. With no phone number, the resourceful security people used the season ticket in Hester's purse to contact the club and we were able to provide correct answers to confirm ownership. By this time Hester was on her way home, having borrowed money to pay the full bus fare, the concession pass having been in the purse. All ended happily after husband Roy had been dispatched to Aberdeen next day to collect the purse.

Probably a worst ever day for Fife teams in the Fife & Lothians Cup last Saturday. Glenrothes crashed to what was probably their heaviest ever defeat when losing 10-0 to Bonnyrigg Rose at the Warout Stadium and Kirkcaldy YM went down 8-3 at Musselburgh, despite twice taking the lead in the opening half hour. Up the Tay at Newburgh the East Shore Park club lost 9-0 to Bo'ness United. There was some cheer for the Fife clubs, though, with Thornton Hibs compounding their opponents' disappointing start to the season with a 1-0 win over Newtongrange Star. Supporters may wonder at the apparent anomaly whereby Fife based Tayport FC can't play in this Tournament. It's because, prior to reorganisation in 2002, Tayport played in the Tayside League. Following reorganisation clubs in Fife and Lothians voted down Tayport FC's request to play in the F&L instead of the North & Tayside Regional Tournament.

Tayport FC Honorary President and former club treasurer Ross Macmillan has just retired after 20 years as Luvian's top ice cream maker and one of his last tasks before retiring was to demonstrate his skills to the Scottish World Cup Rugby team who paid a visit to his factory.

HOW WE WON OUR FIRST SCOTTISH CUP TWENTY YEARS AGO THIS SEASON

THE ROAD TO FIR PARK (PART 2)

Having comfortably disposed of Banchory's challenge in the 1st round, Tayport were given another home draw in round 2 when drawn v Lochgelly Albert on 11th November 1995.

Lochgelly arrived at Canniepairt in good fettle having just completed a seventh successive game without defeat. Tayport's record since the start of the season, however, was more impressive with 13 wins and two draws from their 15 games. Goalkeeper Fraser Mann had only conceded 7 goals in these 15 games.

Skipper Sean Wilkie and striker Hamish Mackay had both missed the previous game and were expected to return. Tayport's top scorer Dave Reilly was the player the 'Bert's most feared having netted 4 goals in each of his previous two games.

Both Wilkie and Mackay made the starting line-up and Lochgelly were swept aside by 6-0. The Sunday Post reported "Tayport safely booked their place in the third round of the OVD Scottish Cup with an impressive 6-0 victory over Lochgelly. Mackay, out through injury for several weeks, opened the scoring after four minutes and Tayside's leading marksman, Reilly added a second three minutes later. A superb double by Gray gave Tayport an unassailable lead before half-time....."

The line-up was Fraser Mann, Grant Miller, Grant Paterson, Mark Spalding, Keith Nicolson, Sean Wilkie, Allan Ramsay, Gary Maher, Hamish Mackay (Stevie Ross), Dave Reilly, Barrie Gray (Steven Stewart). Mackay (2), Gray (2), Reilly and Ross netted the goals. The attendance was an impressive 347.

So, two successive 6-0 wins in rounds one and two, but it wasn't going to get any easier as the winter months kicked in and Tayport hadn't yet left the Canniepairt.

Another six Tayside clubs also made it to the next round, North End, Arbroath SC, Carnoustie, Scone Thistle, Violet and St Josephs. Lochee United had drawn at Forth but were favourites to progress in the replay on their home turf.

FROM THE OCTOBER ARCHIVES

The ship Janet Allison loaded coal at Tayport harbour and left on Sunday 18th October 1865 en route to Rio Grande, Brazil but didn't get far. On Wednesday a telegram was received to advise that the ship had sunk off Lamberton near Berwick on Tweed with the loss of all five crew, only the ship's master being saved.

1885

On the 13th October 1885 on the local football scene, the 3rd F.V.R. Athletics v Craigmount FC was played at Tayport "and ended in a win for the Volunteers by 10 goals to nil"

Also that month, Tayport based Captain Milne of the steamer Esquimax returned from a whaling trip to the Arctic. Sadly the chief Engineer on that voyage, Mr John Mitchell of Tayport succumbed to an attack of Dropsy. His body was interred on the south side of Eclipse Sound. Mr Mitchell left a widow and family in Tayport.

Tayport Violet played in the East Fife Amateur League and lost 4-3 at Springfield Rovers, Rovers first win of the season. The East Fife League Select defeated the Angus Amateur League Select by 7-1 in a representative match.

A weekend gale had created havoc down the East Neuk. Pittenweem Rovers' recently erected barricade was strewn all over pitch and St Monans Swifts changing hut 'was razed to the ground'

1955

In October 1955 Two men [from England and of no fixed abode] were arrested in Tayport and appeared in Cupar Sheriff Court charged with stealing a hen and three turnips from Shanwell Farm, Tayport. They were fined £3 and £2 respectively. Expensive neeps!
