A Word from our Chairman

Good afternoon all. It's been a disappointing week, to say the least. Last Saturday's Scottish Cup tie's disastrous outcome shook everyone to the core. There can be no excuse. We just didn't turn up.

I'd said in this column before the game that the opposition would be stronger than our previous round's opposition, Port Glasgow, but if our attitude and commitment was at its best we would most definitely have a good chance of progressing to the last 32. How wrong was I? Ten minutes into the game and it was all over bar the shouting.

As a committee we've worked hard to support the manager but after 15 months at the helm, we've seen little or no progress and the defeat on Saturday was, for us and I'm certain our fans, the straw that broke the camel's back.

I know only too well how hard it is for a present day manager but unfortunately we felt that we had to act and this meant parting company with the manager and coaching staff.

I set the highest standards for our players when I was a manager and helped build our club to reach the highest echelons of Scottish Junior football. We as a committee will strive to reach these standards again. So it's vital we get the best leader available, someone with the attributes to galvanise and strengthen our team to compete for honours once again.

This afternoon we face old rivals Downfield, our second meeting of the season. Tayport legend Grant Paterson has agreed to take charge for the game today. I wish him well and hope you can give him support and hopefully the players can respond in a positive manner and produce a much needed boost and victory

Today's Game Thornton's Property East Region League Cup Tayport v Downfield FC

A warm welcome to Downfield FC's committee, players and supporters on their second visit of the season to The Canniepairt for this Thornton's Property East Region League Cup tie.

We will be playing Downfield on another two occasions this season, the return League Cup-tie on 8 December and later on the return league fixture from earlier this season.

League Cup section

Joining Tayport and the Spiders in this League Cup section are Lochee Harp, who currently ground share with Downfield, so there will be a third visit to Balgowan Avenue, to play Harp, on 1st December.

Since our last meeting in August. Downfield have had mixed fortunes which include very good wins over Carnoustie Panmure and more recently. Whitburn.

Scottish exits for both

Like Tayport, the Spiders exited the Scottish last Saturday, beaten 4-1 at St Roch's who play in the same division as Tayport's conquerors Rossvale. Former Tayport player Bryan Duell gave Downfield the lead but it was shortlived.

Bryan Duell at Tayport FC 2005/2007.

Made appearances Scored 28 goals. Collected 14 yellow cards and 2 reds. Super League, Currie Cup and Challenge Cup winner.

Bryan missed out on our last meeting through suspension but will be available today and after netting goals in Downfield's last two games, will be keen to keep out of contention. that run going

Squad freshened up

Manager Paul Marr recently freshened up his squad, releasing some players and bringing in some new faces. One new face since our last meeting is Ryan Hunter, son of Tayport legend Jimmy Hunter whom 'Port signed from the Spiders back in 1991.

Former North End player Ryan knows the road to goal and was one of the marksmen v Whitburn recently.

New dugout occupants

Tayport parted company with manager Charlie King earlier this week and at the time of writing, there's no new face in the dugout. Grant Paterson is likely to be in temporary charge and he will have Gavin Sorley and Dayle Robertson again available for selection. Jamie Mackie is out injured but could be alongside Grant in the dugout.

Rollo and Duffv's red cards last week rules them

What's being in the Borders

Where have all the players gone?

PRESIDENT'S PEN

Welcome to the committee and players of Dumfries Saints. I know many of the Howe travelling support always enjoy the trip to Park Farm and the hospitality they receive. We will be delighted to return the favour today. There will also be an added edge to the match with the Douglas siblings on opposite sides. It will be interesting to view their friendly rivalry!

The Howe 1st XV have not had their troubles to seek with an unprecedented accumulation of injuries impacting on Chris Martin's selection headaches. Despite their travails, the lads remain enthusiastic and committed to achieving a place in National 2 for next year. As a result of the diminished pool of players, we have had to regretfully withdraw the 2nd XV from the regional league.

There are moves afoot to instigate a plan to re-engage and initiate research to understand more fully what may be more acceptable to players today. It would be better if the SRU were more innovative about grass-roots rugby and not become blinkered on the juggernaut that Super 6 could become, reducing even further the playing pool at all levels.

It was interesting to listen to Gregor Townsend in St Andrews on Tuesday hen our Dave Rollo asked where all the players are. Our National Head Coach admitted even his home club Gala, the largest town in the Borders, do not have an U18 team, and they struggle to find players for the 2nd VV.

Our next Home match against Highland is also reunion day for Howe past players. I would be happy if those from across the decades made the effort to take up the lunch package and enjoy the fellowship, recounting tales, which get better the older they are. So if you know a group of your playing peers why not get a table together? Let's pull together, enjoy the get together and Help the Howe.

Chris Reekie

President

In an earlier Port Prog we highlighted the reduction in the number of clubs/leagues now existing at football's grassroots (amateur) level. Football's not alone as this article from last Saturday's Howe of Fife RFC programme tells us.

Like kiddies' football there's a lot of mini rugby these days. Where do they all go when they leave school though? As the Sunday papers' results pages show, games are regularly called off and there are huge score differentials at the bottom of the SRU pyramid, both likely as a result of clubs being unable to muster enough players for a team. In Howe legend Dave Rollo's day, for the Howe to be unable to field a team would have been unthinkable.

DUNMORE'S Match Reports

Forced to

Howe Rugby

Last Saturday's dismal Scottish Junior Cup exit is best consigned to the history books, never to be spoken of again, but, for the sake of the record, here is a summary. Visiting Rossvale, a team on the up, shocked their hosts with three quickfire goals inside the opening ten minutes of this third round contest.

Just three minutes in, centre forward Zok planted a header past Jack Shaw, then McGonigle doubled that lead a few minutes later. This was a terrible start and it got worse. 'Vale took a quick free kick and right-back Niven was on hand to make it three-nil.

Could 'Port mount a comeback? Well, Chris Liversedge (pictured) burst through to shoot home and pull a goal back. But no, 'Port could not mount a comeback.

There was no more scoring in the first half, but it was Rossvale who netted the next counter, early in the second half. McMenamin headed in from a corner, making it 4-1 to the visitors. Strange then that Zok got himself sent off, leaving his team with ten men, but Kris Rollo soon followed suit and it was ten -a-side.

Rossvale then went nap. McGonigle was brought down inside the box, earning a penalty kick, which he himself netted. Late on, substitute Stephen Duffy was ordered off, shortly after entering the fray, and that compounded a miserable afternoon for the Canniepairt outfit.

Let's hope for much better today, against old rivals Downfield.

Support the 'Port!

Tayport FC Part Company with Charlie King

1970s junior

teams

Late last Monday evening Tayport FC announced that Manager Charlie King had left the club by mutual consent. Interestingly, the Real Madrid Manager Julen Lopetegui also left his club on Monday evening, both partings of the way coming after their respective clubs had suffered heavy 5-1 defeats. Not that we are otherwise comparing Real Madrid with Tayport!!

Charlie was appointed Tayport boss in July 2017 and last season guided Tayport to a 4th top finish in the East Premier League. First round exits in the Scottish and East of Scotland Cups were a disappointment as was the loss in Aberdeen to Hermes FC in the GA Cup, albeit at the 4th round stage.

This season Charlie's team quickly fell off the title chasing pace and at the time of his departure, along with assistant manager Daryn Smith and goalie coach Darren Tennant, his former charges are 12 points off the top of the league and 7 points off the foot of the table.

Charlie's 15 month reign took in 49 games with a win, draw and loss percentage of 47%, 18% and 35% respectively. An East Region Cup exit at the first hurdle and a Scottish exit at the second fence wouldn't have helped Charlie's managerial life expectancy

It was a good Broughty side and the clubs had some great contests during that era but that day Tayport had the measure of their opponents from across the Tay. Tayport fielded Phil Callander, George Taylor, Peter Wilson, Frank Feechan, Doug Henderson, Ron Fleming, Jim Scott, Davie Henderson, Keith Ritchie, Ian Howe and Gordon Hughes. Stewart Ritchie and Spider McLaren were subs. Hughes had 'Port level at the break with Howe getting the second half winner.

Eight East Region clubs made it to the last 32 of the Macron Scottish Junior last Saturday with the Region Match Secretary John Reilly no doubt delighted that none of his teams face replays. Indeed there are only three replays today, Cumnock v Pollok, Lanark United v Wishaw and Girvan v Muirkirk. In addition holders Auchinleck Talbot will meet Lesmahagow. Talbot were involved in a Wm Hill Scottish Cup replay last week and did the Junior game proud with a 2-1 win over Cove Rangers. This achievement deserves mention given that Cove are currently top of the Highland League and went into the tie on the back of a 100% league record after 11 games and narrowly missed out last season on a step up to the SPFL .

Notable results in particular were recorded by North End and Glenrothes v North Super League clubs Aberdeen East End and Hall Russell United respectively while Violet and Thornton returned with wins from Arthurlie and Kirkintilloch Rob Roy (both in same division as Rossvale) respectively. Biggest surprise, though, was probably Luncarty getting stuffed by New Elgin who are one place off the bottom of the North Region Juniors pyramid.
