Tayport have a 230 mile round trip next week when they travel north to meet Keith's Islavale in the Scottish Communities Cup in what will be a first meeting between the clubs.

Islavale are presently sitting a comfortable 5th top of the North of Scotland FA's Championship division.

As we know, this competition was formerly the Scottish Junior Cup but with there no longer a Scottish Junior FA, it is run by the Scottish Communities FA and it would appear that any club outwith the SPFL's four divisions can enter.

Holders are Auchinleck Talbot who pipped Largs Thistle by 2-1 in last year's final to collect the £20,000 prize money.

THE CHAIRMAN...

Good afternoon to the Port Support and can I welcome the players and officials of today's Scottish Cup opponents St Andrew's United.

The first time we faced St Andrews United in a Scottish tie, I was our manager and it was some 35 years ago. St Andrews were the home side and started strong favourites. If I recall, a Dave Reilly brace sealed a victory for the 'Port that early January afternoon, after the game had been postponed at the end of December. What would we give for the same scoreline this afternoon? Of course that day it was the Scottish Junior Cup, while today we face off in the Scottish Gas Cup and compete for a place in the first-round proper.

This is the first opportunity I've had to publicly thank our former manager George Shields for all the hard work and dedication he put in to Tayport over the last few years. There is no doubt we're in much better shape than when he arrived, George has had a fantastic career in management and although he has hung up the big coat, fortunately for us, he is still helping Ross and myself behind the scenes.

I also must mention Barry Smith & Grant Clark who both departed with George. Barry has moved to a full time role with Carnoustie Community Trust and Grant has hung up the gloves, or will he? We are fortunate that two of George's back-room staff agreed to stay on. Ross, of course, is our new manager and Andy Ballantine will assist Ross. With the addition of the experienced Paul Lunan and goalie coach Jamie Kelly, we have a strong management team to hopefully take us to higher levels. That said, Ross has had to contend with constant squad shortages these past few weeks through injuries and holidays, I ask you, players on holiday during the season, what's that all about?

Our opponents this afternoon have undergone a huge transformation for the better, mainly due to their chairman Fraser Ogston joining the club a few years ago. Fraser's business acumen and financial support has been a huge boost to the club.

Saints haven't made the start to the season they might have liked, but are a very good side and will start favourites for today's encounter. However, it's a cup-tie and our players need to realise that we will have to be at our very best to get over the line. Do so, then we can find ourselves in the hat.

Enjoy the game.

TODAY'S GAME

TAYPORT v ST ANDREWS UNITED

Scottish Gas Scottish Cup Preliminary Round 3

Derby matches are usually keenly contested affairs and Tayport v St Andrews games are no exception.
Since Tayport decided to stay in the Midlands League and with Football League, derbies have been a scarcity. That's one factor, but the over riding interest is that the reward for the winners...and the tie has to be settled today...is a place in the 1st round proper of the Scottish Gas Scottish Cup. Not so long ago, such an occasion, viz Tayport playing St Andrews United in the 'big' Scottish Cup, could not have been envisaged.

Both clubs have made good starts to their respective seasons and their stats to date are remarkably similar—10 games played, 21 goals scored, 'Port have conceded 12 and Saints 15. Each side's goalscoring in these games has been dominated, each by two players, Ross Kavanagh 12 goals and Regan Lumsden 9 goals for the visitors and Dale Reid 13 goals and Jay Yule 7 goals for 'Port.

Saints manager Fraser Duncan, who was last at the Canniepairt ten years ago when he was Sauchie boss, has a core of four trusted former Sauchie players in his Saints side. At the heart of Saints defence is 39 year old Jason Thomson who had 20 years in the Senior game, mainly with Hearts, Arbroath and Raith Rovers.
Tayport, who transferred Ethan Samson and Jamie Timmons last week, have been thin on the ground these past few games, a situation compounded by Aaron Shepherd breaking his arm at North End and Stefan Elvin and Ben Sivewright's absences last week at Kirrie. The highlights of that 4-0 win at Westview Park were undoubtedly skipper Sam Simpson's splendid hat trick and Dale Reid's customary goal! Andy Ballantine had 90 mins last week and he and his fellow coach Paul Lunan will be on standby for a jersey today.

Stakes are high this afternoon

This afternoon's 3rd preliminary round game is one of 10 ties (Cadoc v Glasgow University was played last night), the outcome of which will determine the clubs who join those from the Highland League, Lowland League East and Lowland League West in the draw for the 1st Round proper of the Scottish Gas Scottish Cup.

That's a stage where the clichéd luck of the draw comes in, with many of the teams in the lower reaches of these divisions looking eminently beatable. The stakes today, therefore, are high. One of the three surviving Fife and Tayside tier six clubs will of course make their exit at this stage at this stage. The other, reigning Midland League champions Dundee North End, make the long trek down to Castle Douglas to meet a Threave Rovers side which eliminated Broughty Athletic by 4-0 in Dundee in the last round

THE MANAGER....

A very warm welcome to everyone joining us for today's Scottish Cup tie against St Andrews United. Today presents us with another important challenge. St Andrews will arrive determined to make the most of the occasion, and we know we will have to be at our best from the first whistle.

Cup football can produce unexpected results, and there is no room for complacency. For our players, this is an opportunity to put in a performance that reflects the hard work, commitment and togetherness that has gone into the season so far. We want to play with confidence, energy and discipline, while making sure we enjoy the occasion. We go into the game at nearly full strength with only Aaron Shepherd on the injury list. We have recently added to the squad with both Chris Tennant and Callum Kelly joining us from Blairgowrie. At the same time, two players have moved, Jamie Timmons joined Downfield and Ethan Samson moved to Broughty Athletic. I'd like to thank them both for their efforts and they go with our best wishes. To our supporters, thank you as always for your fantastic backing. Your encouragement from the stands makes a huge difference to everyone connected with the club. I hope you enjoy the game and get behind the team throughout the afternoon. I would also like to extend a warm welcome to the players, officials, coaches, volunteers and supporters of St Andrews FC. We hope you enjoy your visit and wish you a safe journey home after the match. Most importantly, let's make the most of another Scottish Cup day and give everyone in attendance something to remember.

PAUL BERG of TAYPORT FC WALKING FOOTBALL CLUB WRITES...

Tayport FC Over 50s Walking Football Club first kicked off in March 2010 with around eight players playing at Waterstone Crook on a Friday morning.

Six and a half years later there are over 35 members playing on a Friday morning at the Regional Performance Centre in Dundee or, when weather conditions allow in the summer months, here at the Canniepairt.

Two of the original members, Frank Feechan (L) and Fergus Mann (R), are still turning out today. Both Frank and Fergus played for Tayport FC in the club's amateur days. Both made their debuts this very weekend back in the day, Frank (left) 54 years ago in 1972 and Fergus (brother of legendary Tayport keeper Fraser) 37 years ago in 1989.

It's more than just a game of football, there's plenty chat and banter over a post session coffee. If anyone is interested in coming along, please contact me by email tfcwalkingfootball@gmail.com or call me on 07831 535 555

Nutmeg magazine is the high-class home for quality writing about Scottish football's past, present and future. Published every three months, our 196 elegant pages offer an engrossing blend of opinion, nostalgia and insight.

nutmeg, the respected Scottish Football, journal recently published an article by journalist and author Neil Andrews on former Tayport FC manager, the late John McGlashan. Courtesy of nutmeg we will be serialising the article over our following issues

TWISTING the lion's tail

Tipped for the top and backed by Bruce Rioch, John McGlashan's career was on the rise before a devastating injury halted his momentum. More than 25 years later, he is still remembered by fans for his grit and brilliance at The Den.

There's a fair chance you've never heard of John McGlashan. Even if he'd played for a team you support, it may still test your powers of recall. In a career just shy of 20 years, the highest level he reached was the second tier of English football, and the only silverware he won was the Football League Trophy in 1996 with Rotherham United. Yet things could have turned out very differently for the midfielder from Dundee, if not for an ill-fated tackle at the start of the 1991/92 season.

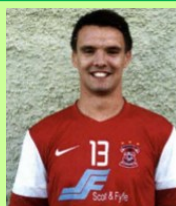

McGlashan had arrived in South London the previous Summer, one of new Millwall manager Bruce Rioch's first signings alongside fellow Scot Alex Rae. Despite being the elder of the two, McGlashan was something of a late bloomer compared to his new teammate, having been plucked from Junior football at age 18. As such, he had only two seasons with Montrose under his belt, while Rae, who had come through the ranks at Rangers, had become a stalwart of the Falkirk first team and played nearly 100 games for the Bairns. Yet Rioch, who reputedly kept a treasure trove of files and dossiers on upcoming players, had high hopes for both as the Lions looked to bounce back to the top flight.

Nevertheless, it was Rae who first caught the eye in a campaign best remembered for Teddy Sheringham's record-breaking 38-goal haul. The youngster scored twice in the opening four games and looked every inch the ideal replacement for Terry Hurlock, while McGlashan had to wait until late December for his debut – a brief cameo in the closing moments of a drab London derby against Charlton Athletic. It turned out to be a fleeting appearance; although he became a regular fixture on the bench, he wouldn't feature again until the following December, when he ironically replaced the injured Rae in the starting line-up for a match against Watford at The Den.

It was a solid, if unremarkable, full debut that ended in defeat. Whether it was nerves or the pace of the game, the young midfielder made a hesitant start before gradually growing into the contest. He tended to play it safe, avoiding risky passes or any attempt to grab the spotlight. Unsurprisingly, he soon found himself back on the bench, with manager Bruce Rioch favouring the more experienced duo of Gary Waddock and Les Briley.
